

National mourning day 2014 observed

North South University observed the National Mourning Day 2014 remembering the Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman and members of his family who were brutally murdered.

A discussion meeting and Doa Mahfil was organized on Thursday, August 14th. On the 15th, the national flag was hoisted at half-mast along with the raising of the black flag at the campus.

Mr. Benajir Ahmed, Chairman, Board of Trustees, North South University trust attended the discussion meeting and Doa Mahfil as the chief guest where Dr. Amin Sarkar, Vice Chancellor, NSU presided over the session. Dr. ANM Meshquat Uddin, Pro Vice Chancellor joined the program as the special guest. Among others Deans and Chairs of different Schools and Departments, Faculty members, officials and the students attended the Doa Mahfil.