

NSU Trustee Mohammed Shajahan is going to participate in the 10th World Islamic Economic Forum (WIFE) conference

Mohammed Shajahan, trustee and former chairman, North South University, Managing Director of Shah Fatehullah Textile Mills Ltd. and Jalal

Ahmed Spinning Mills Ltd, (leading Textile Spinning group in Bangladesh.) has been invited to participate in the 10th World Islamic Economic Forum (WIFE) conference 2014; to be held under the patronage of Vice President and Prime Minister of the UAE & Ruler of Dubai, from 28-30 October 2014 at Madinat Jumeirah Conference Centre, Dubai, United Arab Emirates. As one of the top-level CEOs and leaders of national economics arena, Mohammed Shajahan, the

CIP in the country will take part in three days of thought-provoking discussions, plenary sessions with distinct attendance from Heads of State and Government, top-level CEOs and experts from the global economic arena. Business prospects in the Muslim World will also be showcased bringing a focus on the broader halal industries including finance, food, tourism, leisure, education and standardization