

NSU observed Victory Day 2013

North South University (NSU) observed victory day, 2013, through different activities. Students, teachers, and administrative members of NSU placed wreaths at the national monument early in the morning, as a gesture of respect toward the freedom fighters of Bangladesh and visited the national monument at Savar, on 16th December, 2013 to pay tribute.

A discussion session was held at the NSU campus where Major Gen Imam Uz-zaman, Bir Bikram, freedom fighter was present as the keynote speaker. Prof. Amin U Sarkar, Ph.D., Vice Chancellor, North South University chaired the session. Prof. ANM Meshquat Uddin, Ph.D., Pro Vice Chancellor, Prof. Miftahur Rahman, Ph.D., Dean, School of Engineering & Applied Sciences, Abdus Selim, Asst. Professor, Department of English and Abu Sayeed Khan, Freedom Fighter (Ex-MP) delivered speeches.

A cultural program was organized by the students of NSU Social Services Club (NSUSSC) following the session. Students of NSU participated in the program.