In order to encourage the underground bands from different universities of Bangladesh, North South University Sangskritik Sangathan (NSU SS) had organized 'Inter University Unplugged Session' this year on 25th October, 2014. To uphold the Bengali tradition and culture, NSU SS had planned this event as a platform for the bands to perform and also made sure to choose at least one song from the given categories such as, Rabindra Sangeet, Nazrul Geeti, Lalon Geeti, Hason Raja, Shah Abdul Karim or any folk culture of Bangladesh. 15 underground bands from six different universities participated in this event. Among them were Trip, Colors, Candle Carmine, Bhai Brothers, Mayanohor, Mirage and many other unknowns yet, but very remarkable bands.
