

Carleton College students attended an off-campus study program at NSU

On Sunday, 7th December 2014, a team of 13 international students from Carleton College, Minnesota, USA visited North South University in an off-campus study program, accompanied by Dr. Fares Bhuiyan instructor of the Department of Economics at Carleton College. Their visit to the North South University Campus was organized by the NSU Model UN Club, in collaboration with USAID. At first, the visiting students were given a campus tour through which they were informed about the different departments and administrative processes of NSU. After the tour, an open discussion took place at the PPG Conference room, which was enlightened by the presence of Prof. Emdadul Haq, Club Coordinator, Brig Gen Mohammad Saber (Rtd.), Director Administration, Dr. AQMA Rahman Bhuiyan, Faculty Advisor of NSU MUNC and several international faculty members of NSU. The open discussion was followed by lunch, after which the visiting students had a chance to engage themselves in some recreational activities before they left the campus after such a productive day.
