

Dear Students,

I hope you all are healthy and safe. According to the decision of the University Grants Commission of Bangladesh there will be no final written examination this semester. Your final evaluation will be conducted through home based individual assignments. Faculty members will provide assignments to you in Google Classroom on May 18, 2020. You must submit the complete assignments within June 4, 2020 to the respective faculty members. Please follow the instructions properly given by the respective faculty members regarding your assignment.

Stay home, stay safe.

Afruza Sultana
Controller of Examinations
North South University