

NORTH SOUTH UNIVERSITY
Center of Excellence in Higher Education

Chairman's Message

In the interest of uninterrupted academic activities at North South University, the attention of all concerned is drawn to an important matter.

North South University is a prestigious institution of higher education not only in Bangladesh but also across South Asia. We are firmly committed to maintaining the high academic standards of this institution and preserving a healthy, disciplined and congenial environment.

To achieve this goal, we seek the cooperation of all. If any of you have any complaint regarding any wrongdoing or ethical breach or, in particular, any inappropriate behavior toward women or harassment of women taking place on the campus or outside the campus involving anyone connected to this university, I would urge you to directly or formally inform me or the Director (Administration).

If the complainant wishes to remain anonymous, the confidentiality of his or her identity and information will be strictly protected.
